

COLE ASSOCIATES ADVISES LAW FIRM ON FUNDING PARTNER'S RETIREMENT

February 2012

A leading firm of solicitors has successfully raised funding to enable it to buy-out a retiring partner with the assistance of Cole Associates Corporate Finance. The firm, based in Greater Manchester specialises in personal injury advice to clients, including work-related injuries, road accidents, accidents abroad and criminal injuries. With annual fee income of more than £3 million the firm is now well positioned to continue its ambitious expansion plans.

The seven-figure sum raised, which was provided by RBS followed several months of discussions between Cole Associates and a number of banks. David Middleton, partner at Cole Associates led the process on behalf of the continuing partners of the firm of solicitors.
