

Press Release

Acquisition of Scott Lang Investment Management Limited (SLIM)

Alaric Gordon and David Oakes, the team behind Mercater Capital Management, have acquired Scott Lang Investment Management.

Scott Lang, established in 1988, manages discretionary multi manager portfolios for private clients, pension funds and charities, and is based in Altrincham, Cheshire.

Mercater was formed in 2003 to provide multi manager investment solutions for third parties looking to outsource, and operates on the regulatory platform provided by Raymond James Investment Services Ltd.

Mercater Capital Management was advised by Cole Associates Corporate Finance (David Middleton) and Hill Dickinson, solicitors (Paul Ellaby). Funding was provided by Merseyside Special Investment Fund and Royal Bank of Scotland.

The combined entity will adopt the Mercater trading name.

Commenting on the acquisition, Alaric said "I am delighted that we are growing Mercater by the acquisition of this highly respected company which will bring considerable resource for the benefit of our combined client base."
